THE COTTON STATES CON-GRESS.

Its Origin and Influence-The Geergia State Agricultural Bureau-Its Beneficial Effects-Great Saving to the Farmers-An Example to be Imitated-The Financial Problem -Resolutions and Speech of Col. Wm. Johnston, &c., &c.

The Congress convened at 9 o'clock. President Butler in the Chair. Prayer by the Rev. Mr. Hunt, of North Carolina.

On motion of Col. Holt, Judge T. Jones, of Arkansas, and Dr. W. Maxwell, of Tennessee, were added to the Committee on Finance.

He stated that a sub committee of the National Grange thoroughly supplied with every needed had been appointed to mature a plan to be submitted to the sub-Granges for their consideration. Judge Jones then read the following dispatch from the agent of the Rockdale Co-operation Company of England:

adopted: Resolved, That a committee be appointed to consider the proposals sent to the co-operators of the United States by the co-operators in Great Britain, through the Hon. Thos. D. President of the Congress was added to said committee. Col. Holt, of North Carolina, offered the following resolutions:

Whereas, The Legislature of Georgia has established a State Department of Agriculture; and

Whereas, The wisdom of such policy has been demonstrated by the complished by said Department, although less than one year has elapsed since its establishment; and Whereas, The information furnished the planters of Georgia by the Commissioner of Agriculture in his circulars on fertilizers, labor, &c., is of incalculable value to agriculturists of the whole South; and Whereas, Similar information gathered in each of the other Southern States would enable the planters of the South to forecast the price of their staples and save annually millions of Resolved 1. That the delegates of this Congress be and are hereby rejuested to urge the Legislatures of their respective States to follow the precedent so wisely established by their sister State of Georgia.

Resolved, That the Secretary be and is hereby instructed to forward a copy of the above preamble and resolution to the Commissioner of Agriculture of Georgia and to the Exe cutives of each of the Southern

Dr. Janes, of Georgia, by request spoke to the resolutions. He was more accustomed to work than to speak. The Georgia State Agricultural Society, was established in 1846, the Patrons of Husbandry in 1872. Both of those orders have done good. Both approved the establishment of a Department of Agriculture. In 1873 the Agricultural Convention requested the Legislature to establish a Department of Agriculture for the State. The Legislature passed the act in 1874 to create this department. This Commissioner was appointed soon afterward, who has the superintendance of the agriculture of the State to a large extent. $10,000 were appropriated by the Legislature for the expenses of this department. In taking charge he had experienced great difficulty, having no precedents to guide him. The great points brfore them was the improvement and elevation of agriculture and the estimation of the true valuation of fertilizers. The farmers of the State were well nigh bankrupt from the use of improper fertilizers. The obtaining of agricultural statisties was also in his department; the geological survey of the State and the chemical examination of the soil were also under his supervision .-Assistants for those branches were appointed. A catechism pertaining to the growing crops and the labor used were sent to all the farmers .-Answers were sent to his department, and a verdict from this jury was published. This report brought out the fact that the labor of the State was not self-sustaining. |The fertilizers being used were fast ruining the State. He could not immediately enter upon vigorous exercise of the authority given him to remedy this evil. He now has the matter under his control. Labor is improving. No guano can be sold in Georgia without his consent, and after a careful analysis by the State Chemist. The commissioner also requires that 500 pounds of every distinct brand introduced into the State be furnished him for practical test to ascertain the amount of plant food it contains. The department has adopted rules for this guano test and expect good results. The plan adopted is very much like that of George Ville, the chemical and soil test being combined.

Georgia spends $3,000,000 for guano. In 1873 by an indiscriminate use of fertilizers the State suffered greatly, many of her best farmers verging upon bankruptcy.

The department, he thought, would save to the State this year $2,000,000. He was also engaged in collecting facts relating to all the material interests of the State which were compiled. The system employed for this was like that used in England. The State Geologist had two corps in different parts of the State examining and reporting upon the soil. Sheep husbandry was a specialty in his department. A pound of wool could be raised as cheap as a pound of cotton. The department receives replies from the best farmers of the State on the 15th of every month relating to the crops and labor. His department never acts in the interest of Bulls and Bears, and he hoped the day was not far distant when similar departments would be established in all the Southern States. The department had benefitted the labor system of Capt. James R. Thigpen, of North Carolina, suggested less cotton. Labor was controlled in his country by corn and fodder; a plenty of corn being raised by the planter commanded labor. Large crops of cotton created a demand for labor. Shorter time and less labor was required to raise cereals. By raising these latter the farmer could become independent of labor. Capt. Paine, of Georgia, then made a statement of the affairs of the Direct Trade Union. This Union was formed to benefit farmers. The Commissixn Merchants had established charges enormous and unjust. The object of this Union was to prevent those charges and to protect the farmers against all impositions. It was organized on the 2nd of April, 1874. Nobody had stock in it except the Patrons of Husbandry. This was done to prevent capitalists gaining control of the enterprise. The Union first assisted the farmer in buying bagging and ties, which were distributed throughout the State. The bagging fell two cents per yard immediately after the establishment of the direct Trade Union. The credit system and the guano sales bring the cotion into market sooner than it otherwise would do. The Union therefore determined to send an Agent to Liverpool and thus enable planters to hold their cotton and at the same time let the farmers have their money. Col. Lawton, of Charleston, S. C., was sept as agent. Money arrangements were made in England, and advanced at 5 per cent. The advance in gold had been very detrimental to the company, for while the advance in gold put up the price of cotton in this country it did not advance it in England. Col. Lawton had mistaken the needs of the planter and retained the sales o the cotton until all the shipments had been sold. The sales for shippers in Georgia and Tennessee had given universal satisfaction. In the cities the cotton buyers were always in combination, and would not overbid each other. In Atlanta cotton had advanced 1 per cent, in one day rather than allow the cotton to be shipped. Another of the great objects of the Union was the procuring of supplies for the farmer at reduced prices. At this juncture, as a special order, Capt. C. B. Denson, cf North Carolina, after a few pertinent re marks pertaining to agricultural colleges and the department of practical agriculture, read an essay on Agricultural Education by Dr. E. M. Pendleton, of Georgia, which was istened to with much attention.

The consideration of Dr. Pendleton's essay being before the Congress Prof. Kerr, State Geologist, of North Carolina, addressed the Congress in an earnest and instructive manner bringing forward facts of the great est importance concerning agricultural experiments and colleges.

The discussion of the Direct Trad Inion was then resumed. Capt. Paine stated that 5,000 bales of cotton had been shipped direct within the last twelve months. Col. Sims, of South Carolina, in troduced the following resolution: Having heard the statement of the Secretary of the Direct Trade Union of Georgia, we believe it to be an agency capable of accomplishing the objects had in view, notwithstanding the difficulties they had to contend with, and recommend it to the consideration of the Cotton States.

Capt. Alexander, of North Carolina, thought the Direct Trade Union a great enterprise, but its management had shown some inefficiency on the part of some of its agents, and he wished this question considered more fully.

Capt. Paine explained the difficulties under which the Union had labored, and thought whatever evil had existed had been corrected.

Col. Wm. Johnston thought the Union had been of vast good to the Southern States, in the increase of the price of cotton and the obtaining of money at 5 per cent, but he hoped the resolution would be withdrawn until the workings of the Union had been more thoroughly perfected. He hoped the Union would be encouraged until it became an institution of power and great good in the Mr. Alexander moved the whole matter be referred to the committee on the co-operation movement. Adopted. Capt. Taylor, Master of the S. C

State Grange, read a letter from S. A. Pierce, of Columbia, S. C., proposing to test the matter of co-operation in Columbia. Referred. Col. Johnson, of North Carolina, Chairman of the Committee to which had been referred the telegram from Messrs. Bryce and Stenhouse, of Charlotte, concerning the taxing of ten per cent, on other circulation than National, made the following report: Whereas the people of the respec-tive States of this Union in pursu-ance of their constitutional and reserved rights, enjoyed previous to the war the advantages of a State system of banking, under which the pros perity and welfare of the people were greatly enhanced, and which system was found adequate to the financial requirements of the people and States; and whereas, it is believed that the re-establishment of such system would tend very greatly to relieve the financial embarsments of the peopte; and whereas, by section ten, aricle one, of the constitution of the United States, it is provided that no State shall make anything but gold and silver in a legal tender and by article ten of amendto said Constitution it is provided that the power not delegated to the United States by the constitution are reserved to the States respectively, or to the people; and whereas, no power was ever delegated to the United States by either the State or by the people to make anything but gold and silver coin a legal tender in payments of debts; and whereas, the Congress of the United States has heretofore, by laws provided and put in circulation as a necessity of war, irredeemable currency, to the support of which burdensome tax was levied upon the issues of specie paying State lanks, resulting in the utter ruin and destruction of the State bank system of the country; and whereas, the necessity for the longer continuance of such discriminating laws imposing this tax upon State banks no longer Be it resolved by this Congress: That the interest and prosperity o the people imperatively require that the Acts of Congress imposing such ax upon the issue of State banks in justice and right should be repealed Resolved, That our Senators and Representatives in the Congress of the United States be requested to urge he passage by Congress of an Act epealing such tax.

Resolved, That the Secretary of this Congress be and is hereby instructed to send copies of these resolutions to each Senator and Representative in Congress.

WM. JOHNSTON, Chairman. Col. Johnston supported the report with a forcible and clearly argumentative speech, giving statistics of the banking system before the late war and since. He regards the present circulation of currency totally inadequate to the wants of the peo-

Capt. Thigpen reported from the Committee on Constitution and By-Laws, which was adopted.

The Constitution provides for the annual meeting of the Congress at such time and place as may be agreed upon, and the election of the following officers bi-ennally: A President from each cotton State, a Recording and Corresponding Secretary and a Treasurer. The Congress to be composed of delegates appointed in this manner: Every Master of a State Grange shall appoint three delegates from each Congressional District and two from the State at large, with alternates, the State Agricultural Societies to make similar appointments. The election of officers under the new Constitution was proceeded with, resulting as follows: President-Gol. D. E. Butler, of Corresponding and Recording Secetary-Gol. J. D. Whitford, of North arolina. Treasurer-Col. R. M. Sims, of South Carolina.

On motion of Mr. Mills, the President of the Congress was authorized to appoint the Vice-Presidents required under the Constitution.

Col. Butler, on taking the chair as President, made some exceedingly happy remarks. He said he had rather be President of the Cotton States Congress than to be President of the United States. He loved the South, her institutions and her people and it was with pleasure he aided in this effort to help those with whom he had been raised and whose welfare was the dearest object of his

AFTERNOON SESSION. Congress met at 4 o'clock, President Butler in the chair, Capt. Thigpen offered a resolution urging Grangers and the Agricultural Societies of the Southern States the importance and absolute propriety of producing an abundance of all articles of prime necessity, which was unanimously adopted. The Committee on the proper basis o unite commercial interests of the Southern States and the States of the West and North-west reported that the South Atlantic States and all the Northwestern States should be united to each other by the strongest ties of commercial interest, by reason of their diversity of climate and soil, each producing the prime articles of domestic necessity required by the other; that those articles are bulky and heavy and require cheap transportation; that these two great sections of our common country are in closer proxmity to each than any other extreme divisions of the country that so much require each other's productions; that the extreme poverty of the South Atlantic States from desolating war and the great ranges of the Apalachian mountains lying between them and the Northwest interpose inseparable barriers to quick and cheap transportation and place the construction of such facilities of inter-communication beyond the reach of private enterprise. ved. The following resolution was adop-

That the Congress of the United States be requested to afford such aid as will insure the construction of three great trunk lines of railroads, one from Chicago to Morristown, Tennessee, another from St. Louis through Cumberland Gap to Knoxville, Tennessee, and a third from Memphis to or near water, Macon. Ga.

A resolution was adopted referring the whole matter of co-operation with the Rockdale Society, of England, to the National Grange. The consideration of this resolution drew forth an explanation from President Butler as to the workings of the Direct Trade Union established in Atlanta last year, and after his remarks Capt. Alexander, of Mecklenburg, stated that the explanation of the President and Capt. Paine had satisfied him. and he begged to withdraw the remarks he had made in the morn-

The following resolution, introduced by Col. Johnston, was adopted: Resolved, That for the purpose of appreciating the value of greenbacks and to relieve the labor and industries of the country, the Congress of the United States be requested to make them a legal tender for all dues to the Government, including the duties on foreign importations as well as the interest on all its bonds so as to have one currency for the Government, the bondholder and the

THE WEEKLY NEWS is the cheapest paper published in North Carolina. It is only one dollar per year, postage paid, contains 32 columns of plain printed news from every section of the country, and important advertisements. Always Cash.

THE eighty thousand negro votes are essential to the salvation of the radical party in this State; hence the tenderness with which Civil Rights is treated in their secret resolutions.

If the Radicals are going to adjourn if they obtain a majority, why are the office-helders so much interested in getting into the Convention? Why does Judge Buxton come down from the bench to engage in the strife? Why are R. C. Badger and Ike Young working so hard to get there? What business has Judge Watts leaving his courts to go round haranguing?

THE Radicals are working hard every where. Will our Democratic friends be idle? Political and social salvation are at stake. Will not the Democrats go to work? Let the example of Cox and Merrimon be followed every where. The results of this campaign will be felt for good or for evil for generations to come.

Go to work every where.

LET there be a full vote polled at the election for delegates to the Convention. It is a struggle of parties. If the Radicals obtain the ma jority they hold the State at their mercy. They will doctor the Constitution to suit themselves. They will fix themselves in power for an "unlimited duration of time." (This is what they mean by the phrase.) They are not going to adjourn before they do that.

THE National Republican sneeringly commenting upon the possibility of Jefferson Davis being returned as U.S. Senator says, "it would not be so strange as the possibility appeared 15 years ago of the election to the House of North Carolina of a thrice sold slave, John A. Hyman." True, Radicalism made it possible for an ex-slave to be placed in a false position, to which neither education or qualification fitted him, and it may be possible that the changing temper of the times which the Republican so much deplores, may restore Jefferson Davis to the position to which education and qualification do eminently

But Mr. Davis will not be sent to the Senate, and the Republic only uses his name to try to exasperate the North out of its recovered good

W. T. FAIRCLOTH and J. B Whitaker are spoken of as the Civil Rights candidates for the Convention in Wayne county.

The secret conclave resolved "That an extended discussion of the Civil Rights is deemed unadvisable, but that the Republicans should never intimate that the bill is wrong in principle or that it will be disastrous in its operation, and it is believed that time will show that no evil need be apprehended from its enactment."

And therefore, the party plays with the question very daintily sometimes helding it off as a thing offensive to the touch, and again clinging to it as the ark of safety. But it should not be forgotten that the negro vote is a prime necessity to the party, and Civil Rights must be sustained to secure that vote. The tenderness of the Supreme Court in admitting unqualified applicants to the bar because they were colored men shows the leanings and the necessities of the party. If the Radicals get a majority in the Convention, it is certain they only affected by that competition will hold it in session until they have which will arise among them to made such alterations as will make derive the most benefit from it. Civil Rights a practical reality.

Such of our friends as propose to fall into the Radical trap of voting for such candidates as pledge themselves to adjourn at once, will find themselves badly sold if they do so. They mean to hold the Convention if they are in the majority. Woo to the Democratic party if it suffers itself to be fooled into Radical snares.

WATER WAYS AND RAIL WAYS.

Among the objects which came up for discussion before the Cotton Congress yesterday was the question of asking aid from the General Government for the construction of ways for the increased facilities of communication between the regions of the West and the Atlantic coast, through Southern territories. Writing in anticipation of the discussion we are not prepared either to advocate or combat any arguments which may be advanced.

But one thing will impress itself upon every Southern mind, and that is the obligation resting upon the Government to equalize its favors between the two sections, and to admit the South to a share of those bounties which have been so lavishly showered upon the West and Northwest, tending in their flow to the direct and exclusive benefit of the North, Land grants, subsidies, undorsement of bonds, have put in the power of those sections to put in operation the most gigantic and magnificent scheme of Internal Improvements the world ever saw. The maps of the Western States are so interlaced with lines of railroads as almost to puzzle the eye to untangle the maze. It is certain that without the aid of government, not one twentieth part of these works would have been constructed, or ever contemplated. But that aid has opened up that section fifty years in advance of the time required by the effect of regular causes-in many cases even in advance of public necessities, but stimulating by artificial means waste territory into the seats of empire, filling the wilderness with a teeming and active population, and bringing powerful States into existence by the magic influence of Government favoritism. The South is now recognized as an integral portion of this great country, in full sympathy with all its interests, unquestioned in its loyalty, bound to the fortunes of the republic for weal or for wo, entitled to ts protection, and rightfully claiming a full participation in its favors. It puts in its claim for some share of that liberality which has been se happy in its effects upon the West. But it presents its claims at a time when the source from which that bounty was principally derived is practically dried up. The public lands no longer present themselves an inexhaustible bank to honor every draft. The government must be asked for aid in another form.

It must appropriate money. Is it improper to ask the Government to give the South an equivalent in money for what it has given the West in lands, out of a domain in which the South has an equal share? We think this will not be questioned, and the government can very well divert, as a matter of justice, to the development of Southern prosperity, some of those millions which are so freely squandered for partizan purposes or for sectional favoritism. And the Cotton Congress can reasonably press the claims of the South upon the Congress of the United States for the restoration, or rather the exercise of that impartiality which should characterize a generous guardian of the common

As to which of the two forms in which this aid had best be applied, if obtained-whether to the opening up of Water Ways, by connecting the grand natural avenues of the West with the less imposing water courses of the Atlantic coast by artifical channels, or by railways, we think both reason and the principles of sound economy would point to the latter. The first presents obstacles of nature exceedingly difficult to surmount, and involving a vast expenditure of time and money, and when completed presenting lines very circuitous, subject to the caprices of weather, and the waste of time, that more than counterbalances the economy in freights. Theotheroffers linesalready partially completed, and when completed, presenting a system in which all the States of the South will share. A diverging point on the Virginia and East-Tennessee rail road can be found which will equally benefit Virginia, North and South Carolina, Georgia, Alabama and Mississippi, thus making this mode a system in which all the | can be speedily acquired sufficient States of the South have an interest,

THE Rads are trying to make the Convention a Convention of officeholders. All over the State these gentry are swarming out. Let no body be deceived by the promise to adjourn. When that Convention meets as a Radical body it is going to hold on till it fixes things nicely for the Radical party.

Famine in Iceland.

Mr. Eirfkr Magadsson, Sub-Librarian of the University Library, write to us from Cambridge: Iceland has this year been visited by a calamity in the shape of a volcanic eruption (in character and extent almost identical with that of 783, which proved the death of 14, 000 human beings), the inevitable consequence of which will be famine and destruction of human life on a large scale unless timely aid should be forthcoming. A large number of the most prosperous country districts in the island was laid waste in the course of four hours last Easter Monday by being covered with scoriace. ous sand, pumice and volcanic ashes. The inhabitants have had to fly for life with their stock into districts not yet affected, the pastures of which have been charitably placed at their disposal by the respective owners but, being many times overstocked they are beginning already to yield only famishing sustenance. In private letters which I have just received from the distressed parts it is calculated that pastures to the extent of from 2,500 to 3,000 square miles have been destroyed, which supplied the necessary food for 40,000 sheep, 2,000 cattle and 3,000 horses. The spread of the distress into those very districts whose charity is supporting the first sufferers is itself increasing the evil to an alarming extent, so that any aid, to be effectual, must make provision not only for the instant wants of the people, but also for the ensuing winter, as all prospect of a hay harvest (the only harvest known in Tceland) is gone for this year in the immediately affeeted districts, and is largely imsired in the invaded ones. and fodder being immediately required for the starving herds, it is proposed, should this apppeal be liberally responded to, as I sincerely hope it will be, to charter a special steamer at the earliest possible date to convey direct to the country, as a a first installment of English charity, such stores as are absolutely neces sary at this moment .- London Time

Marksmanship Extraordinary.

An elderly man named Beckwith, esiding in one of the Peninsula counties, came to this city last Thursday on business. He brought with nim an ald-fashioned flint-lock rifle have a stock and lock put on. On the cars he fell in conversation with a party of three gentlemen from this ity, when one of them, to test the reality of some of the extraordinaav feats of marksmanship he boasted of offered him $10 to repeat some o them, to which the other two added 5 between them. The trial came off n an old field half a mile below Rocketts, and was witnessed by about a dozen persons.

The old flint-lock was fired seven times and only once missed its aim. old gentleman, after making two shots at small objects to one side to get his hand steady, as he said, ided his son a potato and station. ed him at 50 vards distance, holding he potato between his thumb and forefinger. The rifle cracked and the potato fell cloven in three or four eces. One of the larger pieces was then thrown in the air, the marks. man keeping at the same distance, and again the shot told. An inch and a-half augur was then produced. and a hole bored in the fence, behing which was fastened a piece of white paper. 'At the distance of 60 yards he marksman sent a ball clear through the aperture, piercing the paper. At the fourth shot, from 6 yards distance, the bowl of a pipe, which the son was smoking, was crushed. At the fifth shot a copper cent was thrown in the air and hit The sixth and seventh shots were delivered at a blackened five-cent nickel piece thrown up by the son standing about thirty yards off. At the first attempt the shot missed. The old gentleman showed consider . ble mortification, and laid the blame upon a bystander, who at the critical moment sneezed loudly. The next attempt, however, was an entire success. The old man declined any further trials of his skill, and when The old man declined any offered a sum of money to repeat his first feat of shooting a potato from his son's hand he refused, saying he didn't care to try such experiments unless his weapon was freshly cleaned The exhibition was the more re-markable from the fact that the marksman was an old man, at least fifty. His eye, however, is a clear, bright gray. His appearance is that of a poor farmer. The young man showed not the least tremor nor anxiety during the dangerous experiment upon himself. The old man, referring to his son, said, "Bob can hoot just as well as I can."-Rich

It is pleasant to know that our President and the members of his Cabinet are enjoying life during the summer. Most of them are absent from Washington. His Excellency, who spends about one-third of th year at Long Branch, is now at Cape May for a brief time to witness the yacht race, having gone from this United States city to that place in a revenue cutter, and taking a number of friends with him. A revenue cutter is to be employed, also, for the accommodation of the regatta committee and distinguished guests, and 'to go to the five fathom lightship, fifteen miles out, to escort the yacht squadron to the island." It is kind of the government thus to furnish steamers, officers and men to promote the pleasure of the sportive yachtsmen and aid the Cape May publicans in their innocent plan for inereasing their profits; and it is noble of our President-the "second Washington"-to contribute the weight of his influence and personal presence for the benefit of the polite hotel-keepers of the Cape. This country never had a President before Grant who would have done this thing.-Philadelphia Times.

Remarking that a nation of marks men may be laid to be a nation of invincibles, the Chicago Times says: "In the absence of a standing army we have more need of training the arms; and very first in value in the handing of arms is the equality of marksmanship. The manual of arms, the company and brigade evo lutions are minor excellencies which exactness for all military purposes Already has a club been formed in Chicago, and it is quite within the range of the probable that, which a year, rifle practice will have become a national amusement."

An Anecdote of Daniel S. Dicken-Burleigh, writing to the Beston

nurnal, relates the following: A party of gentlemen were together last week, and were telling oldtime stories. One referred to Selator Dickenson. He was not overlearned, but was very shrewd. He knew absolutely nothing of the classics, and was greatly annoyed when one quoted Latin. Van Buren had wung off into Free Soil, and the Burden of the party was on Dickenson's shoulders. A friend of Van Buren was eulogizing the ex-President in a speech. He spoke of Curcompared Van Buren to that noble Roman. Dickenson went over to a seat occupied by a Senator who was at home in all that relates to the Romans. "Who is this Curtis, he Senator is talking about he is not talking about Curtis at all. He is talking of a noble Roman patriot. His name was Curtius, not Curtis." "Well, what did he do?" Why, in the time of a great public calamity he threw himself in the breach and saved his country.' "What did you say that's it, is it?" his name was? "Curtius." "Won't you spell it?" "C-u-r-t-i-u-s." All right. Thank you." said Dickenson, as he went to his seat. As soon as the defender of Van Buren took his seat, Dickenson arose, fresh, confident. He closed like a man fresh from the classics. "And who is this Buren. Curtlus threw himself into the breach to save his country. But Martin Van Buren threw his country into the breach to save himself.' Remarking upon the refusal of the Ston authorities to allow Messrs. Moody and Sankey to hold services at that school, the Chicago Alliance says that it is not universally confessed that the method of these preachers is the best way of finding religion. Many think that a slower and more intellectual method is better in the long run, and that men who have grown up religiously under the ministry of a good, calm pastor become as good Christians as those who seem to have been instantly transformed in a crowded tabernacle. The authorities of a school in which are a thousand excitable boys have a right to decide whether they will ask some special messen-gers to come and arouse these young souls by new, and hence untried means, or whether the ideas and impulses of religion shall be expected to come in the good old way. If the Moody method was the only known method of teaching religion and saving souls, this Eton matter would

ADDRESS OF THE EXECUTIVE DEMOCRATIC CENTRAL COM-MITTEE TO THE PEOPLE OF NORTH CAROLINA.

ROOMS OF THE DEMOCRATIC CON-SERVATIVE CENT'L EX, COM., RALEIGH, June 1st, '75.

To the People of North Carolina: The General Assembly at its recent session called a Convention of the people to meet at Raleigh on the 6th day of September next, for the purpose of suggesting such alterations in our organic law as may be deemed wise and expedient.

NECESSITY FOR CHANGE. The necessity for changing many of the provisions of the existing Constitution is generally admitted, and is too apparent to require extended argument. It is true that some of our prominent men at one time opposed the call for a convention; but their action was based on prudential consideration, and not on an indisposi-tion to have the Constitution thoroughly revised. They feared that our purpose in seeking to reform our Fundamental Law, might be mis-construed by the violent and illinformed men then controlling Congress, and the prosperity of our peo-ple checked, and the peace of the State jeopardized by some barsh and unconstitutional action on the part of the United States authorities. That fear no longer exists. We now have every assurance that the Constitution of the United States will be observed by the officers of the Covernment. Government, and feel a satisfaction in announcing to you that the time has at last arrived when the officials at Washington City concede that the people of North Carolina have the same right to manage their local same right to manage their local concerns which the citizens of other States enjoy. We can proceed with-out apprehension to perfect our Con-stitution and remodel it in the interests of our people.

THE CONSTITUTION, THE CREATURE OF MILITARY LAW.

Military dictation, was born in the throes of a Military reconstrucfion. Its authors were mainly Sciolists and adventurers, who had lived among us without preferment, or possessed of qualifictions entitling them to it; others were our recent slaves, who had known no law save the will of their masters, and others still were carpet-baggers, both black and white-alien in feeling and Radical in education-who sought positions here that were denied them where known—to despoil and humiliate us. And when their work was submitted to the people at the polls, thousands of our best citizens were deprived of the right of voting upon it, and over eighty thousand ignorant negroes were given the ballot to secure its adoption. It is no exaggeration to say that not one person in ten who voted for it could read the instrument, and not one in fifty had read it or was even moderately familiar with its provisions, and many gave it their support beleiving it would be merely temporary, and to escape further agitation and revolution. It is natural therefore that a Constitution thus formed and adopted should be found unsuitedt o our condition, and that we should embrace the earliest opportunity consistent with reason and prudence to secure such changes as time and experience have shown to be necessary. Our organic law should be expressed in language clear, simple and perspicuous, so that nothing may be left to inference or construccould not see be- tion; our rights, so precisely defined as to be comprehended by all men of and shot-shot so ordinary intelligence; and each dehe so restricted, that while left free to discharge its appropriate duties, it cannot by unwarranted encroachments embarrass the proper action of

THE CONSTITUTION UNSUITED TO OUR CONDITION. That the Constitution contains some good provisions no one denies; it would be sin-gular if it d d.net, i ut its abominable char-acteristics were so manifest that and a sinacteristics were so manifest that not a single Conservative member of the Convention that pussed it could be induced to affix his signature to it, as a fit instrument to be submitted to the people. Indeed its provisions are so loosely worded and so badly arranged as to constitute but a medicy of inconsistencies that defies the successful construction of the courts; in fact, to reconcile the difficulties arising from inspractical workings, the court has in some instances been driven to supply omissions, and in others to introduce a new principle, h thereto unknown in the judicial history of our State, distinguished as "judicial legislation." an innovation anti-republican in character and invasive of the rights and duties of a sep-rate department. Its proies of a sep rate department. Its pro-ons are so obscure that within the brief space of its existence many more decisions on constitutional questions have been demanded than in the entire previous history of the State—and of late we have witnessed the extraordinary spectacle of two sets or judges in both the secondand eighth Judicial Districts, contending for the same position, one of which claiming to hold by an appointment from the Governor for a period of ten years, an office that the Constitution seems to say is to be fitted by the people at the polis, and whose term is expressed to be only eight years.

In many counties, there is a practical defial of justice, the courts are inadequate ee of its existence many more decisions iressed to be only eight years. In many counties, there is a practical deniat of justice, the counts are inadequate to the public demands, and thus they are driven to resort to special terms, which are expensive and unsatisfactory, and persons accused of criminal offenses are often confined for months without trial. We need a speedier justice and a less expensive judiciary system. We should abolish every useress office, which is now filled by a mere consumer; for only by a rigid and prudent economy in our public as well as private affairs, can we hope to restore the state to irs, can we hope to restore the State to sperity. It is believed that the laws will e more impartially administered by a re-urn to the old practice of a rotation of the

AMENDMENTS TO THE CRIMINAL LAW NEC-ESSARY.

It is also hoped that a greater incentive to honesty and a purification of the ballot box might result from depriving those who are convicted of infamous crimes of the The a atter of the Penitentiary which al-The a atter of the Penitentiary which already contains more than six hundred able codded men, also demands careful and practical attention, to remove in some measure that but den from our shoulders. Most of our private legislation shoulders. Most of our private legislation shoulders. We will be useful to the following the General Assembly. However, our limited space does not pernit us to catalogue the numerous detects and imperfections of the present constitution to enumerate the remedies to be offered.

There should be some general ordinance adopted in relation to private enactments, thereby reducing the expenses of the Leg-ture, and in order to prevent hasty and inconsiderate legislation that no new maters be brought forward within — days of their adjourning.

CAREFUL SELECTION OF DELEGATES. As to the specific changes that ought to e made, these are to be considered by the As to the spectrum of the considered by the be made, these are to be considered by the cilizens of the various counties, who should be careful to select as delegates those who will properly reflect their wishes. Men of enlarged and practical statesmanship, spotless integrity, representatives of all classes of society, and whose positions among them will entitle them their labors to confidence and support—and in their hands they certainly can more safely confide their rights than in the Convention of 1868.

of the two methods prescribed for changing the Constitution, that by legislative enactment is expensive, uncertain and dangerous; the several amendments recently submitted to and ratified by the people encountered the greatest difficulties in their passage, and even after the will of the people was declared in their favor by over 40,000 majority, serious apprehensions were entertained as to whether they were properly adopted; again, legislators when possessed of qualifications for such duties, are encumbered with numerous matters, and cannot bring that attention to each provision presented for consideration, without meeting such criticisms as may imperil their labors.

The Convention method is speedy and economical, the body is composed only of the same number of members as comprise the House of Representatives, and their METHODS OF CHANGE, minds are directed alone to constitutional reforms and their work may be completed and ratified, if necessary, in six months. As to expenses that may be incurred, it is believed they will be more than defrayed in a short time by the reforms that will be naugurated.

Inaugurated.

The restrictions imposed by the Legislature, fully and amply secure the Homestead, Mechanics Lien, Rights of warried women, and Personal Liberty, and should quiet the tears of the most timid, for they are recognized as of binding efficacy and are chiefly enjoyed by the friends of Constitutional Reform. Indeed they were incorporated in the bill mainly to remove partizan clamor, and anticipate scrupulous agitation. They are not the property of a nere party, but had their origin in the necessities of civilized society and were found among the statutes of various States pravious to the war.

QUALIFICATIONS OF DELEGATES.

among the statutes of various States pravious to the war.

QUALIFICATIONS OF DELEGATES.

It is useless, however, to seek to quiet the mere caviller; the keen optics of some persons defy all law. The mere feet that the honor of the best men in the State is piedged to their preservation, should satisfy every reasonable voter. This Convention is called in pursuance of law, and each delegate before "he shall be permitted to sit, to be entitled to a seat in said Convention of act as a delegate thereto," shall swear to observe these "restrictions" (see acts 1874-5.) should a part comply and purt refuse to take this oath, only those who obey the law are members of the body, nor are we without precedents; similar oath was required of the members of the "restricted Convention" of 1875, the same question was raised, and siter debate all the members, ook the oath and observed the restrictions, and that in a time of high parts exc tement. In that discussion the distinguished Judge Gaston used the following language: The State Legislature had indeed no authority to impose an oath upon the members of the Convention, but the people had raiffed the act of the Legislature by choosing delegates under it. If we transcend the limits or refuse obdedience to the conditions therein prescribed we are not the Convention called by the people, but a self constituted body;" these views were concurred in by Macon. Edwards, Morehead, and others. We will dismiss the subject, however, by calling attention to the able work of Judge Janelsson on "constitutional Conventions," where, by argument and the casse cited by him in relation to the able work of Judge Janelsson on "constitutions are bound to obey the restrictions imposed by the Legislature in the Act calling the are bound to obey the restrictions imposed by the Legislature in the Act calling the Convention.

by the Legislature in the Act calling the Convention.

ADD FROM REPUBLICANS.
In our last election it was gratifying to see kepubleans who had hitherto submitted to the control of unscrupulous leaders under a mistaken belief that they were promoting the general welfare, seeing their corruptness as demonstrated by the "Credit Mobilier revelations," "Sanborn Contracts," and other frauds and defalcations, and their vindictive and relentiess policy, whereby they sought to degrade the superior race by this iniquitous "Civil Rights Bid," overcome their party prejudice and give us their cordial support. To them we extend an invitation to remain and continue the work so anspiciously begun. To thosed who oppose us under the deluxion of their leaders, who assured them this bill would never pass Congress and if it did would be vetoed by the President, though it now has his signature; and who have witnessed the earnestness with which the dangerous "Force Bill" was urged upon Congress, we say no longer remain where there is neither safety nor honor to a North Carolinian. The battle for civil liberty is not yet over. "Civil Rights" is still a part of the secret carpet-bag programme for this State; though ariven from the halls of Congress, it will be renewed in the Southern states. We therefore twite their cooperation. The Convention owes its final success to the support of some of their ablest representatives were scouled and defeated by that came element that has brought ruin upon their party and confusion to our State. in upon their party and confusion to ou state.

Necessity of organization.

The friends of convention should at once periect their organization and bring out their best men in every county in the state. The leaders of the Republican party know that by their receless violations of the constitution and efforts to central zeall power in the hands of the Federal Government, they have justly forfeited the confidence and support of the people; they therefore trust not 15 their own strength but to our apathy, and will endeavor to secure our defeat by divisions and false leaders. We therefore respectfully invite their attention to the following resolution adopted and successfully followed in our last campalar:

Resolved, That we earnestly recommend to the members of the Democratic Conservative party to discourage independent candidates and all other disorganizers, that all support be promptly withdrawn from every aspirant for office who shall oppose the regular nonlinees of our Conventions be duly advertised and see that the people have a full opportunity of attending and expressing their wishes. The he people have a full opportunity of at-lending and expressing their wishes. The tending and expressing their wishes. The contest is important not only in its immediate effects but in subsequent results. The Republican party, under the leadership of carnet-baggers still remaining among us, will advocate the election of delegates, who will aprecto meet and a journ without holding a Convention, and this in violation of the wishes of the people, expressed through a two-thirds majority of the chosen Representatives, and after a considerable part of the expenses for milage and perdiem is incurred. We believe, however, the promise is but a delusion and snare, for should they ascertain they have a majority in the body, it will be an easy matter for them to evade their promise by the refusal of a few to concur; as they do not acknowlthem to evade their promise by the refusal of a few to concur; as they do not acknowl-edge the "restrictions" as binding, they will resort to the most revolutionary meas-nes to sustain their desperate fortunes, and in the end will fail to submit their work to the people for ratification or rejec-

Let us, therefore, present a united front,

Let us, therefore, present a united front, and with a general advance along our lines Badicalism will not only be routed but overwhelmed, and a victory for Civil Liberty assured for 1878.

SIMMON & LIVER REGULATOR

For all diseases of the Liver, Stomach and Spleen. It is eminently a Family Medicine; and by be-ing kept rendy for immediate resort will save many an hour ot suffering and many a dol of supering and many a doi-lar in time and doctor's bills, After Forty Years trial it is still receiving the most un-qualified testimonials of its virtues from persons of the highest character and re-sponsibility. Eminent phy-wicians commend it as the most for Constipation, Head-acue, Pain in the Should-ers, Dizzises, Sour Sto-mach, bad taste in the mouth, Elliots Attacks, Palpita-tion, of the Heart, Pain in the region of the Kidneys, Despondency, Gloom and for hodings of Evill, all of which are the offspring of a diseased Liver.

If you feel dull, drowsy, de-bilitated, have frequent headache, mouth tastes bad-ly, poor appetite, and tongue coated, you are suffering from TORPID LIVFR, or "BILI-OUSNESS," and nothing will cure you so speedily and per-manently.

The LIVER, the largest or-gan in the body, is generally the seat of the disease, and if not regulated in time, great suffering, wretchedne DEATH will ensue.

Armed with this ANTIDOTE, all climates and changes of water and food may be faced without fear. As a Remedy in MALARIOUS FEVERS, BOWFL COMPLAINTS, RESTLESSNESS, JAUNDICE, NAUSEA.

unbroken, None other is genuine. J. II. ZEILIN & CO., Macon, Ga., and Philadelphia.

> THE SYMPTOMS of Liver Com-plaint are uneasiness and pain in the side. Sometimes the pain is in the shoulder, the pain is in the shoulder, and is MISTAKEN for rheumatism. The stomach is affected with LOSS OF APPETITE and sickness, bowels in general costive, sometimes alternating with lax. The HEAD is troubled with pain, and dull, heavy sensation, consideratroubled with pain, and dull, heavy sensation, considerable Loss of MEMORY, accompanied with painful sensation of having LEFT UNDONE something which ought to have been done. Often complaining of weakness, DEBILITY, and low spirits. Sometimes MANY of the above symtoms attend the discase, and at other times very LEW of them; but the LIVER is generally the organ most involved.

Nearly all diseases originate from Indigestion and Torpidity of the Liver, and relie is always anxiously sought after. If the Liver is Regulated in its action, health is almost invariably secured. Want of action in the Liver causes Headache, Constipation, Jaundice, Pain in the Shoulders, Cough, Chilis, Dizziness, Sour Stomach, bad taste in the mouth, Elinous attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, depression of spirits, or the blues, and a hundred other symptoms, for which SIMMONS' LIVER REGULATOR is the best remedy that has ever been discovered. It sets mildly, effectually, and being a simple vegetable compound, can do no injury in any quantities that it may be taken. It is harmless in every way; it has been used for forty years, and hundreds of the good and great from all parts of the country will vouch for its being the purest and best.

The Canadian Premier in Englandthe American Rifle Team at Wimbledon-the Passage of the British Troops Through Burmah.

LONDON, July 14 .- Mr. Mckenzie, the Canadian premier, in a speech great resources of Canada. He con-tended it was quite consistent for two nations to exist on the North American Continent, governed differently and with differing political institutions. He was convinced, so long as Great Britain maintained her present attitude towards the Colfriendship and confidence would be maintained.

The telegraph reports that the tents for the American team were pitched at Wimbledon yesterday.

Further communication has been made to the King of Burmah regarding the passage of the British troops through his country, and it is hoped that the King will yield.

French Affairs-Unexpected Avowal of Rehier.

PARIS July 14.-Assembly de. clared election of Burgoing null and void by a vote of 330 to 310. Mr. Duvall Bonarpartist interpreted government as to the line of conduct it intended to pursue towards the Im-perialists. Buffell replied that the Government regarded it the duty to insure respect to the Constitution. It would tolerate no factious initrigue from any quarter nor take the initiative in legal prosecution, but would refer unlawful acts to tribunals. The declaration produced great excitement. Rohier introduced a proposition for a new election in Nievre, notwithstanding the law forbidding supplemental election to the present ssembly. In course of his remarks he made allusion to the Committee for appeal to the people, which he acknowledged he directed. The avowal of the existence of such Committee which Rohier had previously denied on his honor was received with surprise and caused a sensation. The debate adjourned to-day.

Precarious Condition of the Carlist Chiet.

MADRID, July 13.—The Official Gazette reports that great panic exists in Estella, where the news of the Carlist has only just become known. The Carlists are removing their artillery from the city. Gen. Dorregaray is hemmed in by several brigades on the higher mountains near Huesca. Gen. Campos will shortly arrive and complete the cordon drawn around the Carlist chief.

AN EXAMPLE FOR LITTLE BOYS. -Last Spring four little girls of Davy county made up a box of clothing, &c, for the Orphans. More re-cently the little girls of Wilson gave an entertainment, the proceeds of which were contributed to the support of the Orphan Asylum; and at this time a unmber of the little Misses of Oxford are preparing to give a concert for the same purpose. So much for the dear little girls.

Samuel Vance Shelton, a little boy five years old, of Buncombe county, got together sixty cents, the products of his own labor, and sent it as a contribution to the Orphans. While Oscar Riddick, six years old, sends the Orphans one dollar. We print this as an axample and a suggestion to other little boys .- Oxford N. C.) Orphans Friend.
